

Summer Reading: English 11

1. Read Into the Wild by John Krakauer for the first week of school. You may also find a good audio book version on Audible or Youtube and follow along with the book as you listen. Come to class ready to discuss your favorite parts of the story, questions you have about the book, and the themes that you identified as you read.